1. At an interview in Karlshorst, Lt. Gen. Georgiev informed Nadolny that

- a. Russia intends him to be German Foreign Minister.
- b. The Russian plan for the Moscow discussions will fall into two phases. The first will deal with technical questions; the second phase will be the actual discussions.

2. During the first phase Russia will completely support the idea of a German central government and the lifting of the zonal frontiers. While expecting some opposition from the Western Powers

3. Georgiev promised Nadolny that he would be invited to the second phase of the discussions.
